Objective:

As a dedicated web development student, I am passionate about honing my skills in front-end and back-end web technologies. Eager to learn and grow in this dynamic field, I have a solid foundation in HTML, CSS, and JavaScript and am actively expanding my knowledge of web frameworks and technologies. My coursework has equipped me with the fundamentals of web design and development, and I am excited to apply my learning to real-world projects. I am a quick learner, a problem-solver, and thrive in collaborative environments. I am enthusiastic about the opportunity to contribute to web development projects and gain hands-on experience in the industry.
